Mayor Walt Cobb Recovering from Surgery

The City of Williams Lake wishes to inform its residents that Mayor Walt Cobb was self-admitted to hospital in the early morning of April 10th, 2019 due to health concerns. He was transferred to Kelowna General Hospital, where he was diagnosed with a heart attack and successfully underwent treatment.

Mayor Cobb is recovering well and is expected to be back in Williams Lake next week, where he will be recovering for the next several weeks.

We ask that the Mayor's privacy and that of his family is respected during this time and any questions, comments or support be directed to City Hall.
