Banff Mountain Film Festival is Coming to Williams Lake

Banff Centre Mountain Film Festival World Tour is coming to Williams Lake on Tuesday, December 3rd!

Banff Centre Mountain Film and Book Festival is one of the largest and most prestigious mountain festivals in the world! Hot on the heels of the Festival held every fall in Banff, Canada, the Banff Centre Mountain Film Festival World Tour hits the road.

With stops planned in about 550 communities and more than 40 countries across the globe, this year's tour features a collection of the most inspiring action, environmental, and adventure films from the festival.

Travelling to stunning landscapes and remote cultures and bringing audiences up-close and personal with adrenalin-packed action sports, the 2019/2020 World Tour is an exhilarating and provocative exploration of the mountain world.

From the over 400 films entered in this annual festival, award-winning films and audience favourites are among the films chosen to travel the globe.

The Cariboo Memorial Recreation Complex will feature films such as:

Gone Tomorrow, The Story of Kentucky Ice Climbing – Filmmaker, Mike Wilkinson

This adventure documentary takes the audience for a bourbon-fueled ride deep into the bushy hollers of Appalachia with a crew of harmless misfits as they race to search out and climb new ice routes before they're gone.

Surfer Dan – Filmmaker, Camp4 Collective

In a time when it can feel like you need to fly to the opposite side of the globe to find adventure and challenge, Surfer Dan proves that with dedication, grit and a little creativity you might already have all you need outside your own backdoor.

Thabang – Filmmaker, Hannah Slezacke and Dean Leslie

Thabang Madiba somehow found his way into the world of trail running and in the last few years has become everyone's favourite in the South African trail scene.
